Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 20, 2007, the board of directors and sole member of our general partner approved of the management and director changes discussed in more detail below.

(b) Effective on August 1, 2007, Dr. Ralph S. Cunningham will resign from his positions as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and interim President and Chief Executive Officer of our general partner. In connection with these resignations, Dr. Cunningham has been appointed to the positions of director and President and Chief Executive Officer of the general partner of Enterprise GP Holdings L.P., the parent company of our general partner.

(c) Effective August 1, 2007, Michael A. Creel has been promoted from Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer to the positions of President and Chief Executive Officer of our general partner.

Michael A. Creel, 53, was elected an Executive Vice President of our general partner and EPCO in January 2001, after serving as a Senior Vice President of our general partner and EPCO from November 1999 to January 2001. Mr. Creel, a certified public accountant, served as Chief Financial Officer of EPCO from June 2000 through April 2005 and was named Chief Operating Officer of EPCO in April 2005. In June 2000, Mr. Creel was also named Chief Financial Officer of our general partner. Mr. Creel has served as a director of the general partner of our operating partnership since December 2003. Mr. Creel was elected a director of Edge Petroleum Corporation (a publicly traded oil and natural gas exploration and production company) in October 2005 and a director of our general partner in February 2006. In August 2005, Mr. Creel was elected as President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of EPE Holdings, LLC and in October 2006, Mr. Creel was elected Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and a director of the general partner of Duncan Energy Partners. In connection with his promotion to President and Chief Executive Officer of our general partner, Mr. Creel is resigning his officer positions at Duncan Energy Partners.

Also effective August 1, 2007, W. Randall Fowler has been promoted from the position of Senior Vice President to Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of our general partner, and William Ordemann has been promoted from Senior Vice President to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of our general partner.

W. Randall Fowler, 50, has served as the Senior Vice President and Treasurer of our general partner since February 2005 and a director since February 2006. He has also served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of EPE Holdings, LLC since August 2005 and as Chief Financial Officer of EPCO since April 2005. Mr. Fowler, a certified public accountant (inactive), joined the EPCO family of companies as director of Investor Relations in January 1999 and served as Treasurer and a Vice President of our general partner and EPCO from August 2000 to February 2005. Mr. Fowler was elected a director of EPE Holdings, LLC in February 2006. In October 2006, Mr. Fowler was elected a Senior Vice President, Treasurer and a director of the general partner of Duncan Energy Partners.

William Ordemann, 48, was elected as a Senior Vice President of our general partner in September 2001, and was previously elected Vice President of our general partner in October 1999. Mr. Ordemann was a Vice President of Shell Midstream Enterprises, LLC from January 1997 to February 1998, and Vice President of Tejas Natural Gas Liquids, LLC from February 1998 to September 1999. Shell Midstream Enterprises and Tejas Natural Gas Liquids were both affiliates of Shell.

Mr. Ordemann participates as a Class B limited partner in EPE Unit L.P. and EPE Unit III, L.P. (the "Employee Partnerships"), which were formed to provide additional long-term incentive compensation for certain of EPCO, Inc.'s employees by allowing them to participate in the appreciation in value of Enterprise GP Holdings L.P.'s ("EPE") common units.

Table of Contents

The Class B limited partnership interests in the Employee Partnerships are generally subject to forfeiture if a Class B limited partner leaves employment with EPCO prior to the fifth anniversary of the Employee Partnership's formation. Generally, upon liquidation of the applicable Employee Partnership, vested Class B limited partners, including Mr. Ordemann if he so vests, will be entitled to receive EPE units with a then-fair-market-value equal to (a) the appreciation in EPE's unit price between the date of the applicable Employee Partnership's formation and its liquidation, less (b) any accrued but unpaid preference return due to the Class A limited partner.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Enterprise Products Partners Elects Creel President and CEO; Fowler Elected Chief Financial Officer

Houston, Texas (July 23, 2007) – Enterprise Products Partners L.P. (NYSE: EPD) today announced the board of directors of its general partner has elected Michael A. Creel president and chief executive officer and that he will continue in his current role as a director of the general partner. Mr. Creel succeeds Dr. Ralph S. Cunningham, who resigned as interim president and chief executive officer (CEO) of the general partner of Enterprise Products Partners. In connection with these changes, Mr. Creel has resigned as director, president and CEO of the general partner of Enterprise GP Holdings L.P. (NYSE: EPE), whose general partner board of directors has appointed Dr. Cunningham as director, president and CEO. Mr. Creel also resigned as chief financial officer (CFO) of Enterprise Products Partners' general partner, a position he has held since 2000.

“Mike’s strong leadership and success in building a solid financial foundation for the partnership has been instrumental in establishing Enterprise as one of today’s premier midstream energy players,” said Dan L. Duncan, chairman of Enterprise Products Partners. “In his new role, Mike will be directly involved in implementing strategic initiatives that will drive the continued growth of our integrated energy value chain.” Mr. Duncan added that executive management responsible for commercial and business development functions within the partnership will report to Mr. Creel.

A certified public accountant with over 27 years of experience in the energy industry, Mr. Creel has served as executive vice president for the general partner of Enterprise Products Partners since 2001 and was elected senior vice president in 1999. Prior to joining Enterprise, Mr. Creel held a number of executive management positions with Shell affiliate Tejas Energy and NorAm Energy Corp. He is a graduate of McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in accounting.

The board of the general partner of Enterprise Products Partners has elected W. Randall (Randy) Fowler as chief financial officer to succeed Mr. Creel and also promoted Mr. Fowler to executive vice president. Mr. Fowler was also elected to these same positions at the general partner of Duncan Energy Partners L.P. (NYSE: DEP) by its board of directors. Mr. Fowler will continue in his current capacity as director of both boards, as well as executive vice president and CFO of the general partner of EPE.

Mr. Fowler joined Enterprise in January of 1999 as director of investor relations and was elected treasurer and vice president of the general partner of Enterprise Products Partners in August of 2000. He was promoted to senior vice president of the general partner of EPD in February of 2005. A certified public accountant (inactive), Mr. Fowler has more than 25 years of finance and accounting experience in the energy industry, having worked for NorAm Energy Corp., ArkLa Exploration Company, and Butler-Johnson, Inc. He holds a bachelors degree in accounting and a masters degree in finance from Louisiana Tech University.

In other actions, the board of directors of the general partner of Enterprise Products Partners elected William (Bill) Ordemann as chief operating officer to succeed Dr. Ralph S. Cunningham and promoted him to executive vice president. Mr. Ordemann reports to Mr. Creel and will be responsible for the Operations, Engineering and Environmental Health, Safety & Training functions within the shared services group. Mr. Ordemann will also hold this same position at EPE after being elected by its board of directors.

Since joining Enterprise in 1999, Mr. Ordemann has been responsible for asset management and business development in the natural gas processing and natural gas liquids businesses and has been instrumental in Enterprise's growth in this area, most recently in the development and execution of the partnership's Rocky Mountain growth initiative. Prior to joining Enterprise, he held numerous managerial positions in Operations, Engineering and Commercial areas for affiliates of Shell Oil Company. He holds a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Virginia Tech.

The actions of the various boards of directors will become effective Aug. 1, 2007.
