Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Unless the context requires otherwise, references to “we,” “us,” “our,” or “Enterprise GP Holdings” within the context of this Current Report on Form 8-K refer to Enterprise GP Holdings L.P.

(e) On November 13, 2008, EPCO Inc. (“EPCO”) formed EPCO Unit L.P. (“EPCO Unit LP”) to serve as an incentive arrangement for certain employees of EPCO through a “profits interest” in our consolidated subsidiary, Enterprise Products Partners L.P. (“EPD” and its units are referred to as the “EPD Units”). On the same date, DFI Delaware Holdings L.P. (“DFIDH”) contributed to EPCO Unit LP 779,102 EPD Units (with a value of approximately $17,000,000, based on the closing price of the EPD Units on the New York Stock Exchange on November 12, 2008) (the “Initial Contribution”) and was admitted as the Class A limited partner. Certain EPCO employees, including some of our named executive officers, were issued Class B limited partner interests and admitted as Class B limited partners of EPCO Unit LP without any capital contribution. These awards are designed to provide additional long-term incentive compensation for our named executive officers. The profits interest awards (or Class B limited partner interests) in EPCO Unit LP entitle the holder to participate in the appreciation in value of the EPD Units. The Class B limited partner interests in EPCO Unit LP held by our named executive officers are as follows: Ralph S. Cunningham, 20%, W. Randall Fowler, 20%, Michael A. Creel, 20% and A.J. Teague, 20%. A copy of the EPCO Unit Partnership Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

Unless otherwise agreed to by EPCO, DFIDH and a majority in interest of the Class B limited partners of EPCO Unit LP, EPCO Unit LP will terminate at the earlier of November 13, 2013 (five years from the date of the agreement) or a change in control of EPD. EPCO Unit LP has the following material terms regarding its quarterly cash distribution to partners:

- § Distributions of Cash Flow – Each quarter, 100% of the cash distributions received by EPCO Unit LP from the EPD Units will be distributed to the Class A limited partner until DFIDH has received an amount equal to the Class A preferred return (as defined below), and any remaining distributions received by EPCO Unit LP will be distributed to the Class B limited partners. The Class A preferred return equals the Class A capital base (as defined below) multiplied by a rate of 4.87% per annum. The Class A limited partner’s capital base equals the amount of any contributions of cash or cash equivalents made by the Class A limited partner to EPCO Unit LP, plus any unpaid Class A preferred return from prior periods, less any distributions of cash or units made by EPCO Unit LP.
- § Liquidating Distributions – Upon liquidation of EPCO Unit LP, EPD Units having a fair market value equal to the Class A limited partner capital base will be distributed to DFIDH, plus any accrued Class A preferred return for the quarter in which liquidation occurs. Any remaining EPD Units (after satisfaction of any debt or other obligations of EPCO Unit LP) will be distributed to the Class B limited partners.
- § Sale Proceeds – If EPCO Unit LP sells any EPD Units that it beneficially owns, the sale proceeds will be distributed to the Class A limited partner and the Class B limited partners in the same manner as liquidating distributions described above.

The Class B limited partner interests in EPCO Unit LP that are owned by EPCO employees are subject to forfeiture if the participating employee’s employment with EPCO and its affiliates is terminated prior to November 13, 2013, with customary exceptions for death, disability and certain retirements. The risk of forfeiture associated with the Class B limited partner interests in EPCO Unit LP will also lapse upon certain change of control events.

On November 13, 2008, EPCO also formed a Delaware limited partnership, TEPPCO Unit II L.P. (“TEPPCO Unit II”), for which it serves as the general partner, to serve as an incentive arrangement for Jerry Thompson, an employee of EPCO and the chief executive officer of our consolidated subsidiary, TEPPCO Partners, L.P. (“TEPPCO”). On the same date, Duncan Family Interests, Inc., an affiliate of EPCO, contributed to TEPPCO Unit II 123,185 units representing limited partner interests in TEPPCO (the “TEPPCO Units”) (with a value of approximately $3.1 million, based on the closing price of the TEPPCO Units on the New York Stock Exchange on November 12, 2008) and was admitted as the Class A limited partner. Mr. Thompson was issued 100% of the Class B limited partner interests and admitted as Class B limited partner of TEPPCO Unit II without any capital contribution. The Class A preferred return for TEPPCO Unit II is 4.87% per annum. The other terms and conditions of TEPPCO Unit II are substantially similar to the terms of EPCO Unit discussed above. A copy of the TEPPCO Unit Partnership Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

We expect that a portion of the fair value of these equity-based awards will be allocated to us under the EPCO administrative services agreement as a non-cash expense. We are not currently responsible for paying or reimbursing EPCO or its affiliates for any other expenses associated with EPCO Unit, including the value of any contributions of cash for the purchase of the EPD Units. However, we expect that EPCO will seek an amendment to the administrative services agreement under which we would be obligated to make payments equal to our allocated share of the distributions, if any, by EPCO Unit to the Class B partners. Authorization of such an amendment would be subject to, among other things, review by the Audit, Conflicts and Governance Committee of our General Partner.
